

MISSION	To improve the quality of life for Richland County constituents through outreach, mediation, advocacy, strategic programming, and education.
VISION	Creating community, improving lives, and moving to excellence.
ROLE	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Develop productive relationships with community partners throughout the County.• Engage and involve the public in policies and practices that directly impact communities.• Measure impact of initiatives through surveys, reports, and involvement.• Effectively communicate accurate and essential information to all audiences in conjunction with the Public Information Office and other County departments.• Serve as an outlet between the County and its constituents, customers, and partners.• Help satisfy unresolved issues and work to continuously improve public involvement in the government process.
CONSTITUENT GROUPS	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Elected officials and local municipalities• Individual voters• Residential communities and homeowner associations (HOAs)• Business community• Higher education• Other county organizations (K-12 schools, churches, millage and ordinance agencies, etc.)
STAFF	Chris Keefer, Director of Government & Community Services E: keefer.christine@richlandcountysc.gov P: 803-576-1547 Bryant Davis, Assistant Director of Government & Community Services E: bryant.davis@richlandcountysc.gov P: 803-576-1546 Charlton Burns, Government and Community Services Relations Associate E: burns.charlton@richlandcountysc.gov P: 803- 766-5620 Kimberly Humphrey, Government and Community Services Relations Associate E: humphrey.kimberly@richlandcountysc.gov P: 803-576-1546