

April is National Fair Housing Month. In celebration and appreciation Richland County Government is in partnership with Lexington County, City of Columbia, SC Human Affairs Commission, Appleseed, School Districts One and Two as well as other organizations to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the Fair Housing Act and the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr. by hosting Civil Rights: It Still Matters (CRISM).

Matters (CRISM).

Richland County Community Development is proud to offer the first of its kind, CRISM April 27-28, 2018, in Richland County District 8. Day one will offer Poverty, Community and Language Access: A Problem Solving Exercise is an invitation only event for professional service providers. See time and locations below.

Day two will be presented in both English and Spanish and the primary goal is to target citizens of Latin origin and share how to make the American dream of homeownership with a focus on housing, banking and financial literacy as well as fair and equal access to available resources. The public is welcome to attend. However, registration is required at <https://crism2018daytwo.eventbrite.com>. Lunch will be provided for both events to those persons that pre-register.

For information contact Jocelyn Jennings at (803) 576-2055 or jennings.jocelyn@richlandcountysc.gov.

